

ACS CODE OF ETHICS

The ACS Code of Ethics is part of the ACS Constitution. As an ACS member you must uphold and advance the honour, dignity and effectiveness of being a professional. This entails, in addition to being a good citizen and acting within the law, your adherence to the following Society values:

1 The Primacy of the Public Interest

You will place the interests of the public above those of personal, business or sectional interests.

2 The Enhancement of Quality of Life

You will strive to enhance the quality of life of those affected by your work.

3 Honesty

You will be honest in your representation of skills, knowledge, services and products.

4 Competence

You will work competently and diligently for your stakeholders.

5 Professional Development

You will enhance your own professional development, and that of your colleagues and staff.

6 Professionalism

You will enhance the integrity of the Society and the respect of its members for each other.

This Code of Ethics applies to all ACS members regardless of their role or specific area of expertise in the ICT industry.
